

Outstanding New Family and Consumer Sciences Professional

Purpose

The award is meant to encourage new teachers to remain in the profession. Recipients of this award must have made significant contributions toward innovative, unique and novel programs and have shown a professional commitment early in their careers as Family and Consumer Sciences professionals.

Eligibility

Individuals who are currently employed as full-time classroom/laboratory teachers in a family and consumer sciences education program are eligible for this award. Nominees must have taught in a family and consumer sciences education program for a minimum of three but not more than five years. (Applicants may be in their sixth year of teaching at the time of application). Age is not a determining factor. This is a competition award and only one individual will be selected.

Application Procedures

Complete and attach the CATFACS Nomination Cover Form and provide a written response which includes all the following criteria in no more than 3 pages.

1. Provide a program description.
2. Professional membership and activities.
3. Professional contributions (may include presentations and publications)
4. Training and experience background (to include educational training and work experience).
5. Civic and community involvement (to include civic, fraternal and/or honorary memberships and contributions).
6. Include a one or two letters of support. These letters should come from the following individuals:
 - Nominee's immediate supervisor
 - An administrator
 - Current or former student
 - Parent or community lay person
 - Additional letters of choice

The CATFACS New Professional may be nominated to compete at the state level for the CACTE Outstanding New Professional award. If nominated, the nominee may be asked to provide additional information (additional letters of recommendation, picture, expanded professional activities, etc.) so a competitive packet may be submitted.
